WHO'S NEWS

Your two-week guide to Doctor Who!

The Age of Steel

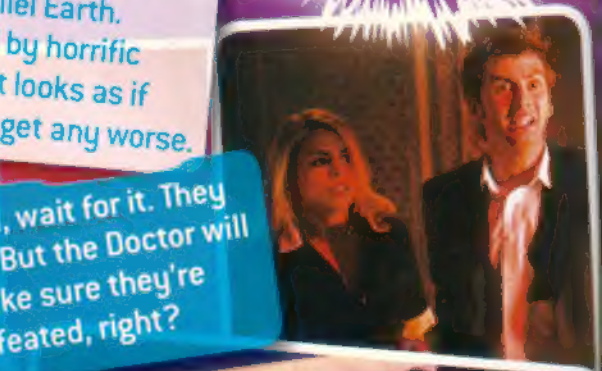
episode 6

At the end of last week's edge-of-the-seat episode, things looked pretty drastic for the Doctor, Rose and Mickey and the people they met on the parallel Earth. Surrounded by horrific Cybermen, it looks as if things can't get any worse.

Watch it! Saturday 20 May on BBC ONE!

Well, wait for it. They do. But the Doctor will make sure they're defeated, right?

What do the Cybermen want and can these metal giants be stopped? One thing's certain – at the end of this adventure, life will never be the same for our heroes.



Scary brainy!

SCARY MONSTER ALERT! The Cybercontroller

Jackie hides

Prepare for scares and danger and excitement... on the ground and in the air.

WEB WATCH!

On the official Doctor Who website this week you can download Cybersounds, help Ricky discover the secret of Cybus, and find out about Blue Peter's Gethin being a Cyberman!

ROSE TYLER
The Doctor's best friend

MICKEY SMITH

JACKIE TYLER

THE TARDIS
The Doctor's amazing time machine!

The TARDIS lands in 1953 next. It's London, but a very different London to the one the travellers encountered in the previous story.

Watch it!
Saturday 27 May on BBC ONE!

A new hairstyle for the Doctor!

Episode 7

The Idiot's Lantern

Shhh!
There are loads of scares ahead! What's thumping upstairs?

It's the Queen's Coronation. Everyone's celebrating. Televisions, it turns out, are still very new, very exciting and... well, dangerous. And an innocent shop, Magpie's Electricals, seems to be responsible for all the danger.

The Doctor gets very angry

Watch out for an eerie Lady Announcer... she may talk beautifully, and wear an evening dress, but she's definitely up to something evil... help!

WIN! MONSTER BOOKS

Out on 25 May, the fab new Aliens and Enemies book from BBC Books is full of foes from Doctor Who past and present... and includes a look at the new Cybermen! What's more, we've got five copies up for grabs! Just answer the following question for a chance to win. Good luck!

Which silver monsters appear in the episode THE AGE OF STEEL?

Mark your envelope ALIENS AND ENEMIES and send to the address on page 29.
Closing date: 2 June 2006

THE CYBERMEN

They're big. They're mean. They don't like humans very much – meet the Cybermen

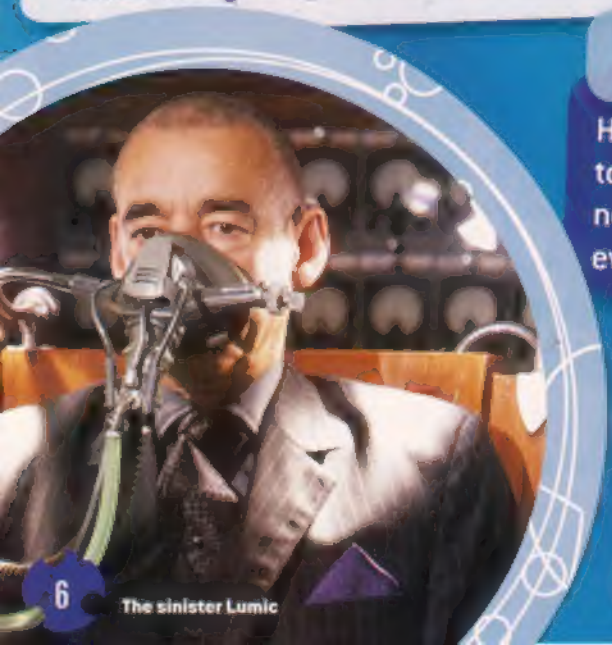
WHO ARE THEY?

You might think you've seen the Cybermen before. Some time ago, when the last Doctor and Rose landed in an alien museum, they discovered a strange metal head on display.

It was the head of a Cyberman – an old enemy of the Doctor's. And these monsters returned in last week's episode.

WHY THE NEW LOOK?

The TARDIS has landed in a parallel world... where many things are different.



The sinister Lumic

WHO'S INSIDE?

Homeless victims have been 'upgraded' to the next level of mankind. But now the Cybermen want to upgrade everyone in sight!

WHAT NOW?

To find out if they're deafeated, you'll have to watch next week. Until then, take a look at what we've seen so far, then check out the other Cyber menaces!

CYBUS

Lumic's company logo is clearly visible on these Cyber chest units.

STEEL ARMOUR

The armadillo-like Cyber chest looks indestructible.

Resistance is useless!

BRAIN

There's a living brain in there... jammed inside a cybernetic body. Gross!

FACE

Blank and expressionless. The dark eye sockets give little away.

HEART OF STEEL

All emotions have been removed.

FEET

Massive, steel boots. Good for Cyber stomping.

Words by Neil Corry and Morag Laing

Cyberstory

Cybermen across the centuries

In our universe, the Doctor has met the Cybermen many times. There have been lots of different types of Cybermen and all of them have seemed unstoppable.

At the South Pole. Cloth-faced and deadly

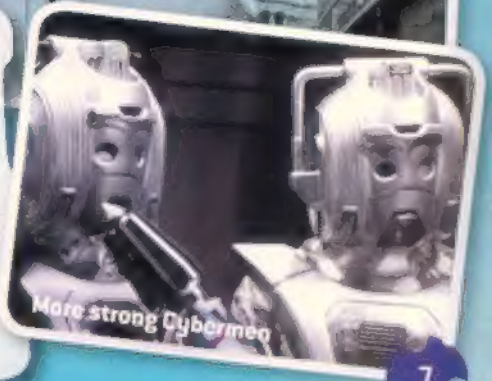
Behind you!

These Cybermen were trapped in their own tomb

With hearts replaced by machines and their brains augmented with computers, they lost all their emotions, so they couldn't laugh or get angry.

Cyber invasion in London

Cyber technology is very advanced – they've even made bombs that can blow up entire planets and they have the strength of ten men.



More strong Cybermen

Cyber Chat

We were brave enough to meet PAUL KASEY... who plays a very important Cyberman!

What's it like playing a Cyberman?

It's very exciting. Everything that has been filmed so far is fantastic. They are very scary.

How does a Cyberman go to the toilet?

There are special holes in the suit – once the special Cyberpants are taken off!

What's it like wearing the Cyberman costume?

It's fine. The last few days we've been filming outside so we wear dressing gowns to keep warm!

Paul in his costume

How long does it take to get inside the costume?

It started off at half an hour, but I've got it down to about 20 minutes over the last two weeks!

What other roles have you played in Doctor Who?

I started off as an Auton, I played one of the trees from Cheem, a Slitheen and the android Zu-Zana!

What do you do as the Cybercontroller?

There's a lot of marching about! There's a light in my head which I control with my chin. And the Cybercontroller gets to sit in a chair attached to lots of tubes.

Did you watch Doctor Who when you were a child?

I did! I have memories of hiding and being scared. I'm so pleased to be part of the new series!

TEA

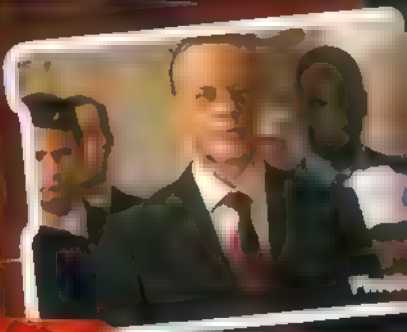
Tea is a lovely herbal infusion of free radicals and tannin. It also helps Time Lords through tricky regenerations.

BEWARE!

Always pour the milk before the tea, which must have passed for two minutes past boiling, or the universe will implode.

With aliens as teachers, lessons just got dangerous! Check out our guide to...

SCHOOL REUNION



WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

Strange things have been happening at Deffry Vale High... so the Doctor and Rose go undercover to find out why! They discover some of the teachers are hideous aliens, and bump into old friends at the same time!

1 HEAD MONSTER

Mr Finch is the new Headmaster. He's a bit creepy and weird, but then he is an alien! He's a bat-like monster called a Krillitane in disguise, and he's brought his alien friends with him to the school..

2 SARAH

Sarah Jane Smith is also investigating the school. She used to travel in the TARDIS. Rose is jealous of her at first – and they even fight about who's met the scariest monsters, but they soon become friends.

3 THE DOCTOR'S DOG!

The Doctor gave his robot dog K-9 to Sarah after she left him. But over the years K-9 had become old and rusty and needed repairing. The Doctor fixes him and he's soon back in action, saving the day with his nose-blaster!

Teachers then sleep in the school...

4 THE KRILLITANES

The Krillitanes are really huge bat-like creatures. They eat dead rats, but they prefer people! They are using the school children to work out a secret formula that will give them power.

5 SPECIAL LUNCHES

To make the children really brainy, the Krillitanes are cooking school dinners in a special oil. The children who eat too many chips get to work for the Krillitanes. The aliens are allergic to this oil, though

Deadly homework

The Krillitanes want the school children to work out the powerful Skonan Paradigm – that will let them control the universe!

Lessons become deadly serious

6 BANG!

K-9 blasts the oil and blows up the school, the Krillitanes and himself. Mickey asks if he can come travelling in the TARDIS. Rose isn't that keen – but agrees. And after a sad goodbye, Sarah discovers that the Doctor has rebuilt K-9 for her ..

File: 04 CLOCKWORK DROIDS

Beware the ticking robots

WHO ARE THEY?

Large, confused, and very frightening masked droids from a spaceship in the far future.

WHAT DO THEY WANT?

Quite simply, they were after an 18th-century French girl called Reinette Poisson – also known as Madame de Pompadour. In their confused state, the droids believed that she was the key to fixing their damaged spaceship.

DRESSED TO IMPRESS

To blend in with their trips to France, the droids dressed up in authentic French costume. Very stylish.

HOW DO THEY WORK?

They're clockwork, hence the ticking! They have no powerlines or batteries, just an automatic winder. When their ship was damaged in an ion storm they used human parts to repair it... yuck!

WEAPONS

The droids have sinister needles in their hands and also sharp blades. They are capable of short-range teleport, but need their ship to survive. When the link between them and the ship was destroyed, they stopped ticking and tocking.

The Clockwork Droids can be destroyed with multi-grade anti-oil.

Cut along dotted lines and keep in case you encounter a droid!

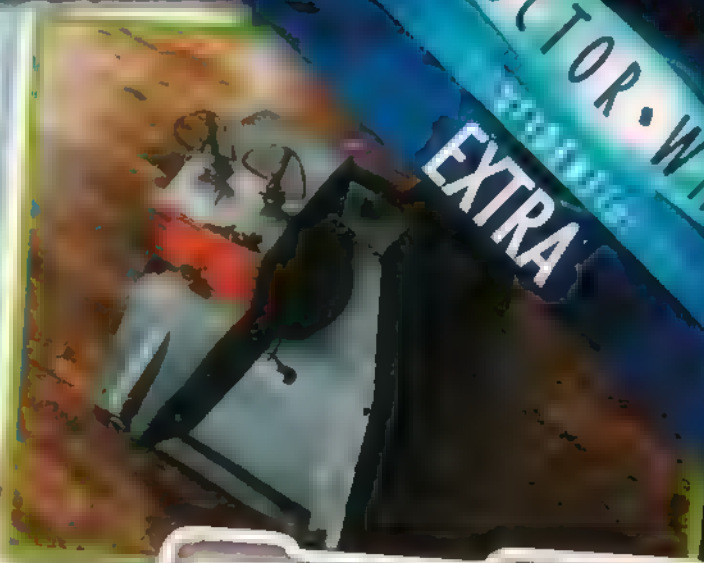
CONTROLLING K-9!

Robot dog K-9 is far more fun than your average remote-controlled toy. With this clever gadget you can work his eyes, ears, tail, probe and gun!



OLD DOG

Parts of the new K-9 are made from bits of the original prop, who made his first appearance back in 1977. The original prop's controls used to interfere with cameras but this new one is much better

CUT!

In one scene, Mickey was originally supposed to pick up K-9 and run through the corridors with him. But the K-9 prop is a bit too heavy, so the whole scene had to be rewritten

FROM THE SERVICE STATION, YUP.
EXCEPT THEY'RE NOT WAVING AT US, THEY'RE WARNING US TO GET...
